PICTURE DIARY FROM CYPRUS

On Monday 24th May, the Team GB Judo Squad headed out to Cyprus for a week long camp where they undertook acclimatisation training, conditioning and physiological testing. Gary Anderson, Performance Co-ordinator and Udo Quellmalz, Performance Director gave us daily updates, keeping us informed of their activities. As usual, the squad were armed with a digital camera to give you all the behind the scenes pictures from the camp. More at:

WORLD CLASS START PROGRAMME – BOYS TRIP TO VENRAY

Every member of the Olympic squad who sets foot on the mat in Athens this summer will remember his or her first International trip representing Great Britain. For some of Judo's talented youngsters coming through the Start Programme, last weekend's International Judo tournament in Venray, Holland marked that occasion. Here the British Judo website follows them on their journey. Visit:
