Last week the entry form information for the Welsh Open was published, with the event running on Saturday 29th and Sunday 30th October 2011 at WIS, Cardiff. Also running that weekend is the Southend International and the Flanders Cup in Belgium.

The England programme, which has been made public for 12 months, is still organising the self-funded trip to the Flanders Cup, Belgium, despite the Welsh Open running the same weekend.

Players, parents and coaches are free to choose which event players attend. Everyone should be made aware that the Home Countries Ranking List only considers the 4 best results when the rankings are compiled. The Home Countries Ranking List is used for seeding purposes only and the England programme uses it to track a player's performances only and not to make selections.

For any players wishing to be included on the self-funded trip to the Flanders Cup, please contact Trevor Sitlinton to declare your interest (trevor.sitlinton@britishjudo.org.uk).
