Media Statement: Sophie Cox

British Judo regrets to announce that Sophie Cox will not be part of the Great Britain team travelling to Japan for the World Championships taking place between 11th-14th September.

Sophie sustained a dislocation injury to her elbow while in training yesterday, which has left her unable to compete. She will have a plaster cast on her arm for up to four weeks.

The team will depart for Japan on Thursday 4th September.

Scott McCarthy, Chief Executive of British Judo: "British Judo wishes Sophie a speedy recovery. Sophie is one of our best young prospects and we look forward to her swift return for the European "A" Season."
