

The British Judo Association

Simon Buttery – Volunteer Manager

Workshop Objectives

- Update on existing Volunteer Projects.
- Update on key club delivery programmes:
 - Club Development (Resources)
 - Role of the Volunteer Co-ordinator
 - BJA Volunteer Helper Awards

The British Judo Association

Project Update

- Youth Inclusion Project (Staffordshire)
- Club Development – Resource Kit
- Technical Commission / Officiating.
- Young Officials Development Officer Project
- Investors in Volunteers Pilot Metro Judo Club London.
- BJA Volunteer Helpers Awards.
- The Role of the Volunteer Co-ordinator.
- Runningsports (Volunteer Workshops)

Volunteer Development

Club Volunteer Development – (712 clubs mailed)

Role Descriptions

Resource Kit

Club Volunteer Action Plan

The Role of the Volunteer Co-ordinator.

To build links in communication between Area Committees, BJA and Clubs.

An increase in the number of people volunteering/helping out at local clubs.

Having a consistent point of contact for volunteers.

Ultimately a stronger and more sustainable club.

To build and establish links with partners such as CSP's, and Volunteer Centres

Volunteer Development

- BJA Volunteer Helpers Awards.
- The following awards are designed to provide volunteer opportunities to current judo participants and non participants.
- Registration Process
- Volunteer Coaching Award.
- Volunteer Officiating Award.
- Volunteer Event Award.

Summary

- If you require any information regarding this workshop, resources are available to take away.

Simon Buttery BJA Volunteer Manager

simonbuttery@britishjudo.org.uk

01509 631670

07791 074883

