

MEMORANDUM

To: All fighters on the 2022 GB Junior, Senior, and VI Squads

From: Performance Team

Date: 13 December 2021

Subject: GBR Adidas Kit for the Paris Cycle: 2021-2024

British Judo are pleased to confirm that Adidas will continue to be their Official Kit Sponsor for the Paris Cycle.

Adidas UK provide National Sport Governing Bodies with their “Teamwear Federation Range” for GB Squads & Teams to use whilst training and competing both at home and abroad.

All fighters (including those who have been co-opted) on the 2022 GB Junior, Senior, and VI Squads will receive a £35 kit credit which they can redeem once per year (subject to them retaining their place on the GB Squad) against any GB Adidas Kit Order which they might like to place.

Please see the Adidas Federation Catalogue to see what items are available to purchase throughout the range. All items are subject to Adidas UK current availability and stock levels.

A compulsory additional £4 charge per item (tops only) is required to cover embroidery costs (see order form).

Should you wish to place an order, please complete and return the GB Adidas Kit Order Form by 12:00noon on MONDAY 10th JANUARY 2022 to john.bramall@britishjudo.org.uk Please see the Order Form for full details.

Order Forms and/or Payments received after the deadline will NOT be accepted.

Items or sizes cannot be changed once ordered, so please check your order carefully before submitting. All items are subject to Adidas UK current availability and stock levels. If Adidas are unable to supply any of your ordered items, you will not be charged.

It is planned that the kit will be distributed at the British Judo National Training Centre during ONST2 on 19-20 March 2022, subject to Adidas UK and the Embroidery Company being able to supply and deliver the kit in time.
