

Low Level Concerns Policy

Version: 0.1

Date of Issue: [April 2024]

1. Introduction

The purpose of this Policy is to help create a culture in which the clear values and expected behaviours which are set out in BJA Code of Conduct British Judo Performance programme- code of conduct and agreement are lived and constantly monitored and reinforced by all adults working with children; and where these adults can be confident about sharing low level concerns, and that the BJA can respond to breaches of the suitable and safe behaviour – all of which should help to create a safer and more open safeguarding culture.

2. Scope

This Policy applies to all BJA staff, Performance Pathway & affiliated Clubs.

3. Principles

Creating a Safe Culture at BJA

BJA safeguarding governance:

- policies and processes in place to deal with concerns.
- a system to record concerns.
- insight that concerns may arise in several ways and from several sources such as complaints made by staff, parents or disclosures made by athletes.
- a transparent open culture where all concerns about adults are shared, recorded, and dealt with appropriately; and,
- ensuring that adults working in the BJA are clear about professional boundaries.

To reduce the opportunity and acceptability of inappropriate behaviours by increasing the effort required to offend.

- increasing the risk and perception of the risk of detection.
- ensuring there are robust and effective staff support systems in place.
- not over-relying on DBS or overseas criminal records checks – they are essential but are not a silver bullet. A clear DBS check simply confirms that an individual has not been found to present a risk to children or adults; it is not predictive.

4. Definitions

Low-Level Concerns

The term 'low-level' concern does not mean that it is insignificant, it is any concern - no matter how small, and even if no more than causing a sense of unease or a 'nagging doubt' - that an adult or volunteering in or on behalf of the BJA may have acted in a way that:

- is inconsistent with the BJA code of conduct and values; and,
- does not meet the allegations threshold or not considered serious enough to refer to the LADO by the BJA Safeguarding Team.

Examples

- Being over friendly with children and/or adults
- Having favorites
- Engaging with a child and/or adult on a one-to-one basis in a secluded area or behind a closed door
- Using inappropriate sexualised, intimidating, or offensive language

Definition of Allegation and Concern

The relationship between low level concerns and allegations should be made clear. For example, the person receiving the low-level concern must always consider whether it meets the threshold for reporting to the BJA Safeguarding Team as an allegation. If they are in any doubt, they should contact the Safeguarding Team for advice. Equally, a series of low-level concerns may cumulatively meet the threshold and need to be treated as such.

Allegation

The term 'allegation' means that it is alleged that a person who works with children has:

- Behaved in a way that has harmed or may have harmed a child or adult at risk
- Possibly committed a criminal offence against a child or adult at risk
- Behaved towards a child or adult at risk in a way that indicates they may pose a risk of harm to that child or adult at risk
- Have behaved in a way in their personal life that raises safeguarding concerns. These concerns do not have to directly relate to a child or adult at risk, but could for example, include an arrest for possession of a weapon or drug related

- Have, as a parent or carer, become subject to public protection procedures.

Therefore, a Low-Level Concern.

A low-level concern is any concern about an adult's behaviour towards a child (or adult who is vulnerable) that does not meet the allegation threshold set out above, or is not otherwise serious enough to consider a referral to their local LADO (or nation equivalent in Northern Ireland & Scotland) via the BJA Safeguarding Team and/or Home Nation Lead for Safeguarding.

A low-level concern is any concern – no matter how small, and even if no more than a 'nagging doubt' – that an adult may have acted in a manner which:

- is not consistent with BJA Values and Code of Conduct, and/or
- relates to their conduct outside of work which, even if not linked to a particular act or omission, has caused a sense of unease about that adult's suitability to work with children or vulnerable adults.

Staff or club welfare officers do not need to be able to determine in each case whether their concern is a low-level concern, or if it is in fact serious enough to consider a referral to the LADO (or nation equivalent) or meets the threshold of an allegation. Once staff share what they believe to be a low-level concern, that determination should be made by the BJA Safeguarding Team and/or Home Nation Leads.

In addition, refer to the CPSU Case management thresholds Case management thresholds | CPSU \(thecpsu.org.uk\).

'This document contains guidance on how safeguarding concerns can be scaled using thresholds, enabling for the concern to be properly dealt with. This guidance should be documented as part of your safeguarding procedures. It is important that this guidance is shared and understood by all staff and volunteers at all levels of your sport.'

Reporting Lines

Anyone who has a concern reported to them by another staff or volunteer member/manager and/or observes this concern (as detailed above) should use the appropriate BJA reporting Form (Appendix 1) Low level concern reporting form and send to the Head of Inclusion, Safeguarding & Wellbeing.

Retention of Data

All access to forms and data limited strictly to those who need to know, lower-level concerns and concerns that meet the threshold for referral will both be retained unless and until further guidance provides otherwise - the former on the central safeguarding file and the latter on their personnel file (staff).

5. Section / Stages

Sharing Low-Level Concerns

Low-level concerns should be reported to the BJA Safeguarding Team or Home Nation Lead if staff or clubs have justification. Where there are concerns/allegations about the members of the Safeguarding Team, this should be referred to BJA Safeguarding Lead on the Board.

The Safeguarding Team will ensure:

- staff code of conduct, behaviour policies and safeguarding policies and procedures are implemented effectively.
- appropriate action is taken to safeguard children and/or adults at risk; and,
- there is an appropriate approach to dealing with any concerns.

It is important staff or clubs are encouraged and feel confident to self-refer, where:

- they have found themselves in a situation which could be misinterpreted, might appear compromising to others; and/or,
- on reflection they believe they have behaved in such a way that they consider falls below the expected professional standards.

Low Level Concern Reporting Process:

- Recognition and Reporting:
- Record, sign, and date concern on the Low-level concern reporting form.docx and email to safeguarding@britishjudo.org.uk (or Home Nation Lead Safeguarding Teams)

Or via our reporting process outlined in BJA Threshold Guidance:

And from May 2024, via MyVoice Reporting Form.

Initial Assessment:

- An initial assessment will be completed by the Safeguarding Team. If it is decided that this concern is an allegation that requires external discussion with the LADO (or nation equivalent), then the escalation will be followed accordingly by the Safeguarding Team.
- Monitoring and review:
- The Safeguarding Team will Review Reporting forms to assess for patterns/links and action if needed.

Previous Low-Level Concern

If an individual has had a previous low-level concern raised against them, the Safeguarding Team must be informed. The information available will be reviewed and a decision may be made to reclassify the concern as an allegation, and the concern will be dealt with in accordance with Safeguarding Policies and Procedures.

Reporting to The CPSU

BJA will consider whether to report concerns to the CPSU regarding any individuals who may be involved in other sports.

DPA & GDPR will be adhered to when sharing information.

What Happens Next?

The information contained in the Online Outcome of the Low-Level Concerns Investigation Form will be kept as intelligence in accordance with BJA Privacy Notice). This will allow The BJA to monitor individuals who do not meet the threshold for a LADO safeguarding referral.

Review of Low-Level Concerns

The BJA Safeguarding Team (or Home Nation Equivalent) will review all Low-Level Concerns periodically to ensure such concerns are being dealt with appropriately, and any potential problematic behaviour patterns are identified.

They will provide overview of all concerns to the Safeguarding Lead for BJA board reports.

If there are serious concerns about the immediate safety of the child or young person, as a club we will contact the Police or Childrens and/or Social Services. Additionally, the safeguarding team will consult with the LADO (or nation equivalent) and update departments or clubs on action taken.
