Back Patches

The following country codes are allowed: GBR/ ENG/ SCO/ WAL/ NIR/ IOM/ JEY/ GGY). Back patches with other country codes will not be eligible to compete.

Back patches are not obligatory.

Competition Format

The British Championships will be run on Judo Manager with live results and draws which can be found >>HERE<<

The intended method of elimination for this event will be IJF/EJU full repechage. In certain scenarios, it is possible to compete against the same player a second time, before the bronze medal contests. If the entry level is too high/low, the tournament director will decide the method of elimination.

Tournament Director has the final decision on the competition format and draws. Please note, at this competition no medal will be awarded if no wins have been claimed.

Ranking and Seeding

This Tournament qualifies for points scoring for promotion purposes. For the cadets, juniors and seniors, eight players will be seeded from the top 16 using the Identification ranking.
