HYDRANT PROGRAMME

Hydrant Programme

The Hydrant Programme is a national policing programme supporting the work of the National Police Chiefs' Council (NPCC) Child Protection and Abuse Investigation Working Group.

Originally established in 2014 to coordinate the response to non-recent child sexual abuse, but now supports forces across all child protection and abuse investigation issues.

NEW PROTECTIONS FOR CHILDREN ONLINE NOW IN FORCE

Online Safety Act

Keeping Children Safe Online: Changes to the Online Safety Act Explained

The way children experience the internet has fundamentally changed, as new laws under the Online Safety Act have come into force to protect under-18s from harmful online content they shouldn't ever be seeing.
