First Aid Protocol

It is good practice to provide your first aiders and appointed persons with a book in which to record incidents they attend.

The information can help you identify accident trends and possible areas for improvement in the control of health and safety risks.

If any incidents were to occur, please look

If any incidents were to occur, please look at our insurance provider, Howden Insurance, to report any accidents and access a claim form if required - https://www.howdengroup.com/uk-en/british-judo

Participation in Competition & Competitive Dan Gradings with Prosthetic Limbs

To ensure the safe and inclusive participation of Judoka with lower limb prosthetics in British Judo competitions, a formal application and approval process has been established.

This process outlines the necessary steps for competition entry, medical verification, equipment authorisation, and communication with event organisers and officials

NSPCC Learning - Child Criminal Exploitation

NSPCC Learning has published a podcast episode which discusses child criminal exploitation (CCE) with the Service Head of the NSPCC's Helpline and a police detective from an exploitation team in England.

The episode covers what CCE is; signs of CCE that professionals working with children should look out for; why early intervention is so important and what that may look like; and how the police can respond to CCE.

Safeguarding Animation Released by Buddle

Buddle, the National Lottery funded programme which provides free learning and support resources to inspire and strengthen clubs and organisations offering sport and physical activity, have released a new video exploring the moral and legal duties of safeguarding children and adults in the context of sport and physical activity.

The animation also shares tips on how you can help foster safe, positive experiences for everyone by following the shared principles of safeguarding.
